Foreword

The past four years of our high school days at Clinton High School . . . have been so important to us that we wish to recapture some of the highlights in this book.
The knowledge we have gained, the friendships we have made,
and the wonderful experiences we had at "C.H.S."
are memories that we shall cherish forever.
This has been our high school life,
the fulfillment of one of many dreams.
As you leaf through the pages, we hope you will re-live with us the many facets of our days at C.H.S.

John Brian Kelly

In Memoriam

On January 8, 1958, by an unforeseen act, our friend and classmate, Brian, was delivered into the hands of God.
Although he was a member of our class for only a short time, many knew him in grammar school and admired him for his fine and sterling qualities which made him a true friend.
Brian will always be remembered in the prayers of those who knew him and they will find solace in knowing that he has reached eternal happiness.
The funeral was held at St. John's Church
with a solemn high requiem mass by Reverend Father Gionet.
He was assisted by Reverend Father Geoffrey Hughes, Deacon, and Reverend Father Paul O'Malley, Sub-Deacon.
The bearers were William McGrail, Joseph Baker, James Weeks, Robert Bailey, James McNichols, and George Fitzpatrick.

James Matthew Ryan

In Memoriam

The will of God is exercised in strange and mysterious ways, which are many times difficult for friends and loved ones to understand.
Such was the case when we learned of the sudden death of our classmate, Jimmy.
He was known and well-liked by everyone.
Both students and teachers recognized his ability and earnestness whether it be in school or at the extracurricular activities.
He will always be remembered in our thoughts and prayers as we feel certain that he has achieved his eternal reward of peace and happiness.
The funeral was held at St. John's Church with a solemn high requiem mass at nine o'clock.
The Reverend Father John F. Cahill officiated and he was assisted by the Right Reverend Monsignor John F. Gannon, P.A., V.G., Deacon and the Reverend Father Joseph E. Lynch, Sub-Deacon.
The bearers were Alfred Tatro, Noel Janda, Philip Sullivan, Michael Hazel. Robert Alberini, and Joseph Schwab.

MONG the bright and sunny days of our school life
there were several occasions of sorrow.
One such happening was the sudden death of Mr. Francis J. Nolan on February 11, 1958.
He was mathematics and history teacher at C.H.S.
and the President of the High School Teachers Association.
He was also the Varsity baseball coach.
It is with deep respect and humility that the Class of '61 acknowledges the faithful service of Francis J. Nolan as our friend.
A member of the faculty of C.H.S. for four years,
he was a model to student and athlete alike.
The extent of his devotion to duty
and his dignity of manner, few can equal.
The Great Teacher called him home.

"WHAT . . . Me Work?"

FRESHMAN YEAR . . .

Now that graduation is near, it seems impossible that four years have passed since the first day we entered C.H.S. as bewildered Freshmen. As we gazed at the Seniors it seemed we never would attain that distinction. We weathered the storm of all the jokes and jeers of the upperclassmen — maybe because we didn't know any better.

That year, under the direction of our capable class advisor we elected the following officers: John Joyce, President; Carol Nicolletti, Vice-President; Bernard Walsh, Treasurer; Joanne Innamorati, Secretary.

Time flew by as we got into the swing of things. We attended the annual Thanksgiving Show and had our class entry in the Interclass Dramatics. In January we had a taste of the Midyears, which we had heard so much about.

Something Old . . .

Something New

On February 6, much to our surprise, we arrived at school to find that we no longer had a building — as we saw the flames take our school, we knew that many fond memories went down with that "Alma Mater." We were the last class to graduate that had spent any time in the original C.H.S.

As June arrived, we knew we would no longer be called the "Frosh" and looked forward to our Sophomore Year with great enthusiasm.

SOPHOMORE YEAR . . .

Once again we returned to C.H.S. but this time it was we who played the jokes. When we had settled down to work we held class elections. The results showed James Davidson, President; Judith Cardoza, Vice-President; Bernard Walsh, Treasurer; Virginia Joyce, Secretary.

We started projects to build up our Treasury.

We slid through midyears like Pros with the system of getting "the most done in the least time."

In May we received our class rings which we treasured above all other things.

Our disappointment that year was the loss of our unforgettable class advisor, Mrs. Patrick Hastings. When we learned she had taken a job in another school system our hearts were saddened because we knew we had lost not only a great teacher but also a true friend.

Now we looked forward to our Junior Year with great expectations.

JUNIOR YEAR . . .

The day had finally arrived when we could be called "upperclassmen." We took our parts in every show, activity and sport. Actors and actresses came forth and several "heroes of the gridiron, basketball court and baseball diamond" came from our ranks.

This was an eventful year and one of our first activities was a raffle, which was run under the guidance of our new class advisor, Mr. Donald Burgwinkle.

We elected Paul Ciavola, President; Judith Cardoza, Vice-President; Bernard Walsh, Treasurer, and Virginia Joyce, Secretary.

After the routine exams, the plans for our long-awaited Junior Prom got underway. We chose "Three Coins In A Fountain" for our theme and hired Perry Conte for the orchestra. Our gorgeous decorations, a beautiful June night and class spirit made our Prom one of the best in the history of C.H.S. and one which every member could be proud.

One more milestone to graduation had passed and as we saw the Class of '60 practicing we knew it wouldn't be long until our turn.

SENIOR YEAR . . .

At last we attained the worthy title of "Senior." Early in the year we elected Thomas Flaherty, President; Judith Cardoza, Vice-President; Bernard Walsh, Treasurer, and Virginia Joyce, Secretary.

Soon we were busily engaged in fund raising projects. We saw our boys' names at the top of every sports list.

We held our Senior Prom, "Winter Carnival" in February and needless to say it was a success.

The days passed all too soon and as work began on our "Memorabilia," we knew it wouldn't be long before we would be marching to "Pomp and Circumstance."

The long-awaited day finally arrived and we were filled with joy and sadness. As we think back we can always remember the Class of '61 . . . it surely was great.

Class Song

To the tune of

"IN THE GARDEN OF TOMORROW"

I

As we leave these halls of learning,
With our mem'ries fond and true.
In our hearts we will be yearning,
For the friendships that we knew;
And, as we go along life's highway,
With its problems we will vie;
We'll be ever faithful,
And so very grateful
To you, dear old Clinton High.

II

Thanks for all the joys we've known here;
Dances, shows, and all those games.
And among them is the most dear,
Our Prom bringing all its fame.
Classes that we'll all remember,
Parties, friends, they were the best.
And now that our time's come,
We find consolation,
Knowing that we've stood the test.

III

And with thoughts so filled with sorrow,
We will say our last farewell;
With our hopes that on the morrow,
Our hearts with pride may swell,
For the glory that we bring you
In each task that we have done.
Time can never sever
Thoughts are with you ever
From the Class of Sixty-one.

Terrence John Allard

"It is better to laugh than to worry.

"Terry" as he is known at C. H. S. is a carefree individual who possesses friendly qualities incomparable. He never passes by without a smile and a cheery "hi." After spending two years at Notre Dame Academy he transferred to C. H. S. and the Class of '61 was only too glad to receive him. He was given an honor truly due to him, when he was chosen to represent our student body at the State House. Terry's ambitions include the Air Force and a career as a pilot. With his gentlemanly ways and personality, we know he'll be successful.

Now we would like to introduce "Judy," one of the prettiest girls in the senior class, with a vivacious and captivating personality. Her willingness to help out on any occasion has won her the admiration and respect of all her classmates. This may be shown by the simple fact that she has served as a class officer for the past three years. Judy can be seen at all the football and basketball games cheering our team on to victory. She plans to enter the nursing profession and with her ambition and determination, we are sure she will succeed as a "Woman in White."

Three Coins in a Fountain . . .

On the night of June 10, 1960, at the Fallon Memorial Auditorium, the Class of '61 sponsored what has been acclaimed the most beautiful Junior Prom in the history of Clinton High School. We dedicated our prom to our invited guests, the Class of 1960, and tried to make it enjoyable and a lasting memory for them.

Working with the theme "Three Coins In A Fountain," we used originality and spirit to make our prom a success. As the couples entered the hall across a stone bridge, a beautiful Roman courtyard which was enhanced by a sparkling fountain and majestic pillars trimmed in white with gold leaf, became visible to them. The balcony, transformed into a stone terrace, was garnished with beautiful hand-made roses of all shades. It was in this magnificent setting that more than one hundred and ten Clinton High School couples enthusiastically danced to the music of Perry Conte's Orchestra while the crystal ball cast an aura of the heavenly.

The evening came to a climax with the Grand March which was directed by Mr. Robert A. Murphy and led by the officers of 1960 and 1961. We all eagerly awaited the announcement of our Junior Queen and her court and finally the decision was made — Joanne Innamorati was chosen our queen and Leslie Scanlon, '60; Carolyn Jakubowicz, '61; Marjorie Wood, '61; Mary Ellen Nolan, '61; Virginia Joyce, 61, and Phyllis Trott, '62 were selected as her attendants.

As our theme song "Three Coins In A Fountain" faded away and our prom became history, we knew that this lovely evening would be kept in our hearts as one of the happiest memories of our high school career.

Winter Carnival

With the Town Hall decorated to the theme of "Winter Carnival," the Class of 1961 held its annual Senior Prom on February 10, 1961.

Snowflakes, evergreen trees, igloos, and skiers were the order of the evening, as couples danced under soft lights to the music of Perry Conte's Orchestra. This will be a memorable night for all who attended, especially with the help of the favors given, big, white stuffed rabbits.

The evening was climaxed with the selection of Virginia Joyce as our Queen, and Judith Cardoza, Mary Ellen Nolan, Carolyn Fairbanks, and Nancy Collins making up her Court.

CLASS OF 1960 GRADUATION

Inter Class Dramatics . . .

FRESHMAN . . .

Here we are in our first attempt at acting. We were nervous and inexperienced but, neverthelesss, we put our best foot forward and proved to be noteworthy competitors to the upperclass even though the Seniors won the competition.

"NO TELEVISION TONIGHT"

A short one-act comedy about a family who had become too engrossed in their television set. This particular evening each member of the family is all ready to sit down to watch their favorite shows when, to their surprise, the set is dead. The hustle and bustle to fix the set that evening and the truth of what really happened to the television set made this a humorous situation.

Lila	Sandra Cozzens

SOPHOMORE . . .

Now we are sophomores and our shyness has vanished. We read our lines as if we were right out of Hollywood and had everyone in hysterics with our antics.

"OH BABY"

A short one-act comedy centering around Linda Lou's baby-sitting job. She is all settled for the evening with the "baby" in bed when Gregory calls. He's the idol of the girls and he wants a date with Linda Lou. She frantically tries to find a girl to take over the baby-sitting. Everybody is busy — everybody, that is, except Percy. As a last resort Linda Lou talks him into baby-sitting for her. Complications arise as soon as she leaves the house — Percy doesn't know a thing about babies. To add to the confusion, he gets a telephone call from the baby's mother. He knows the mother thinks Linda Lou is still there so on an impulse he tries to talk like a girl. The mother becomes suspicious and announcs that she is on her way home. So what does Percy do? He masquerades as a girl. All these factors provided the audience with a half-hour of enjoyable entertainment.

. . . JUNIOR

Now that we had reached our Junior Year our acting techniques were perfected in our presentation of "Itchin' To Get Hitched." This year we won our first award in this competition by copping the best make-up and costume award.

"ITCHIN' TO GET HITCHED"

A short one-act farce of life in the Kentucky Hills. This is the hilarious story of how Pearly Mae's father planned to get her hitched and how she outmaneuvered him with her own ideas on how the problem should be handled. This resulted in a hilarious comedy in which Pearly's beau was the object of all their attention. That year Carole Starr was chosen "Best Actress" from our ranks.

. . . SENIOR

Now as our four years of acting in the Interclass came to a close we realized that this was our last chance. We walked away with the second prize for our acting.

"I'M A FOOL"

A short one-act comedy which takes place at the race track. One of the stable hands, George, meets a beautiful girl, who is also quite wealthy, and decides he had better pretend to be somebody else or she won't pay any attention to him. So he pretends to be a wealthy horse owner and she does fall for his charm. The only catch is that she tells him, as she leaves, that she will write to him, and after she has left he realizes that he will never get the letters or see the girl again because he hadn't told the truth.

FOOTBALL

With ten starters returning from last year's squad, the Gaels looked very promising. That promise seemed to be coming true when the local eleven defeated the Auburn Dandies by a score of 13 to 0 on Fuller Field during the second annual jamboree.

The following week, full of spirit, the team faced arch rival St Peter's. Clinton fans watched one of the hardest fought games with the breaks going against the locals. The game ended with the score 7 to 0 in favor of St. Peter's.

From here on injuries played a big part in the Gaels not winning a game for the season. During every game following, the team played without the services of at least two and sometimes as many as four key personnel. Even with the breaks going against the team they managed to tie two games. The first was with Milford and the second against St. Bernard's.

A word must be said about our new coaching staff. Bob O'Brien, who Clinton fans will remember as assistant coach to the great "Bingo" McMahon, took over the duties as head coach. O'B is a man you can't say too much about. Vic Sochon, past head coach of St. Peter's, coached the Clinton line. Coach Sochon won the respect and admiration of every player on the team. Jim McNally and Pat Laterio, former gridiron greats, drilled the promising freshman team.

Congratulations are in order for the boys that won honors throughout the county by gaining berths on All Star teams. They are Seniors, Co-Captain Tom Flaherty, Co-Captain John Joyce, Jack Wattu; Juniors, 1961 Captain-elect Bob Fateiger, Joe Dintino, Terry Kraft.

The Class of 1961 wishes the team the very best of luck for next season, knowing that they will bring the Midland League Banner back to its rightful home, the halls of C.H.S.

BASKETBALL . . .

This year Clinton had a win-loss record of (3-11), the boys played the best they could and handed each opponent a hard-fought game. On this year's team there were five seniors, five juniors and two sophomores. Every player on the team had a chance to be a captain or co-captain of a game. The coach of this year's team was Mr. William Gosselin, who did a fine job. The seniors boys who have played for the Gaels are Bill McGrail, Mike Hazel, Bob Gilson, Jack Joyce and Bernie Walsh. Two of the Gaels were honored this year by receiving honorable mention in the Central Mass. Conference. They were Jack Joyce and Bob Gilson. Although we did not have a winning record this year we leave our best wishes and fondest hopes that in the years to come Mr. Gosselin may bring the first Central Mass. Conference league trophy to Clinton.

The 1961 Clinton High School baseball team had a record of 4 wins and 11 losses. This year was acclaimed the worst in 17 seasons for baseball weather. Because of rain and snow we lost 6 games. Between making up these games and injuries, the C.H.S. baseball team had a rough time. Mr. William Gosselin was this year's coach. The Senior members of this year's baseball team included Captain Joe Cieslok, fielder and catcher; Jack Wattu, fielder and pitcher; Bill Gilmore, pitcher; Jack Joyce, pitcher and first base; George Boyce second base and shortstop; Danny O'Connell, fielder and second base; Vic Kinosian, third base, and Bob Gilson, first base and fielder.
